Sammons Golf Links to Offer a New Class for Beginners

(Temple) – Learn to play golf from a PGA Professional! Sammons Golf Links is offering Golf 101, a new five-week class to help beginners.

Instructor, James Roberts is the Sammons Golf Links Director and a PGA Professional. Roberts has ten years of experience teaching golf. “Golf 101 is designed to help new golfers. Because golf can be intimidating for the beginner, this class will allow friends to take the class and learn together. By the end of the course you will know everything you need to feel comfortable playing a round of golf on your own,” said Roberts.

Golf 101 begins with an Orientation on Saturday, June 30th. Different class time are available. The class is open to ages 16 and up for only $75.

Participants will learn putting, chipping, full swing, etiquette, golf lingo, rules, and enjoy on on-course experience.

Sammons Golf Links offers several classes for different skill and age levels. Visit or call Sammons Golf Links for more information.

Space is limited. For more information or to register call Sammons Golf Links Director, James Roberts, at 254.771.2030.
